A DISCOVERY

Unto what Nation the last Day
aforehand to be in the last days

Revealed: Contained in the XX. of Kings,

Isaiah 39.

SHOW no other assigned then The word of God,
touching the Resurre-
ctions then being at hand, but that of Jonas the prophet; so in point of like incredulity at his return again turned Sadduces, appointed no other, but this of King Hezekiahs days (Kings, &c.) that for a sign or assurance had, the third day of his uprising, going up to the Lords house to seal it; that of the shadows going back, for the thrid of his life out lengthned, a lease made him of thrice five years, like a shadow when past.

Without which token, not in a capacity of obtaining so high blessing passed not without being by the prophet Isaiah advertised (the Lord of Hosts Ambassador) his house afterward how swept; and sons under what slavery issued from him, not for facility such onely, but difficulty of belief dangerous not a little.

Of which days come about again, this great Revolution ushering the day of Judgement, his coming in the Clouds; whereof as follows, of Jacobs ladder reaching to heaven gate, thus,

thus, The express Epitomy of King James's life of Great Britain, where beside no smal plague accompanying his first coming, afore never visited so with those tokens, of his like recovery, here giving to understand beyond expectation ; such a solemn Thanksgiving for which at Pauls cross : which long Sermon in was related, how in his late sicknes unto death, he likewise justified his upright walking with God: and therewith how pluckt off his Cap, and cast it on the ground, in such a passion professing in point of witting Injustice, he would not so much as ask God forgiveness ; by which way of purging himself, as came not behinde Hezekiah neither in some gross failings : like that good King his hearkning to those charming ing Babylonian Ambassadors or Spies with letters sent to congratulate from Baladan son of Baladan.

Also who shewed them all his store and armory, coming from those Austrian Philips, &c. overcome with like jugling flights, a few figs and junkets, suffered that Gundamore having surveyed the Tower, to carry away as many great Ordnance and Guns as he pleased, preserved for Truths defence, and Kingdoms safety, in no less peril of home-bred friends such, then foreign foes, requisite with Arms and Forces to be secured: And then how sent his Son after, forced for whose Ransom to send over All the precious things and goodly, laid up by his Predecessors, to be bestowed amongst those insatiable Eunuchs and Officers distributed.

ies ad. And lastly the good man himself, in whose days flourished Truth and Peace, thus over-reached, for all his King-craft and Learning, that brake his heart shortly after. And the rest of his Acts, and all his might (or greatness) and how he brought water into the City, and made a Pool and a Conduit, & that Idol ^{the cro's} are they not written in the Chronicles, &c?

And thus this Hezekiah slept, and rested with his fathers, and Manasses his son reigned in his stead; that came not short of Ahab: and he awaked thus, for him so much suffices, become a sign himself, no inferior one, had the Sun's retiring for a sign, obeyed Jacob's command (no feigned Phoen), ~~but~~ ^{but} ~~from~~ ^{from} moving neither day nor night that longed after

Kings xxi. Chron. xxxiii.

And this Manasseh twice twelve years old, when he began to reign over Great Britain; How he reared Altars to Baal, and set up his Roman Altars, built Altars in the house of the Lord, adored that Babylonian Image the Crucifix, manifest are they not on record? Beyond Heathenism abomi-ation execrable: Moreover to the overthrow of them and theirs, how many seduced, beside shedding so much Innocent Blood; insomuch that the Catalogue of his sins, Manness great wickedness, the hateful Amorites Cup, wherewith paralleld and worse; which Tyrants but light in comparison, weighed with this MAN'S, since 1625. the Remonstrance of the present.

To whom the Lord spake, and to his people likewise, but both by regard alike improved in his Commandments; as the Suns course the contrary way gone as many degrees astray, and so both alike whether rewarded, recommended to the beholders, whose high looks brought down, bere see whose Sons coat this? therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I am bringing an evil upon them, that whoso heareth it, both his ears shall tingle: where thus again, whether Jerusalems line stretched over us, C I T Y and Country both; And I will wipe Jerusalem, as a man wipeth a dish, which he wipeth and turneth it upside down; as in a glass whether presents not the face of the present, spares neither side; who not amiss deriving from Brute their denomination, from the Ass as wel who understands his owner, no such stranger to the dumb. And so much for this Manna set at nought, these judgements of the Lord foreshewed, light by set; notwithstanding speaking the Canaan language unto this our Age, to all whosoever hath ears, in their Native tongue, shewed them thei their unnatural motion gone backward how far, offended thereat or no, whereof as ensues.

B thus

This for another making up the number, he when made his supplication, how was heard, also returned to Hampton-Court; however mis-led by sinister Counsel, or betrayed, not un-humbled either, unknown not unto all who agreed to whatsoever, about two years after who slew him in his own house, attended with glowing ears not a few, such a spectacle.

And how the people of the Land slew them again that had conspired, &c. Rainsborough and our Holland Ambassador, taking essay of it, Drunkenness added to blood-thirstiness, were the first saluted with which unexpected cup.

And with expedition (a few words to the wise) on this wise passing on, what Baptism first past on his Sons, visible in the Seers book; withal how servile on the other side to his Priests Bishops, charmed by their subtile Gospels: whose Service book because allowed by his Father, what an Idol made of it, where that for another, recorded in their Prophetical Remonstrance, gave himself to them that had Familiar Spirits, bringing up who so named by him, the gods and others; as Plays his night exercise.

And the rest of his folly, and other of his judgement, making his Prayer-book also equivalent with the Alsufficient Scriptures, evident as his grove made, daily at Ball where sacrificed his his time, graced with one of his Fathers unhappy acts, that Baals or James Chappel, prodigious Tvvins, the other his Babylonian Theatre, from James's to vwhich fatal place made his last progress or march, erected in Commemoration of the Ark as had been, also the seventeenth Century current; as from Adam to the Flood so long, not unforevvarned of it by him that was the son of Adam, that was the son of God; that as vvere those days before Noah, ~~so shall be~~ ~~be~~ ~~knowing~~ again, concerning not only Times golden vial or glafs, by ~~which~~ account its being at a stand: But how it stands or fares with faith put to the question (Luke, &c.) whether ~~men~~ ~~men~~ ~~found~~ ~~such a thing as~~ faith, how preparid then?
